McKINLEY'S CABINET

RUSSELL S. ALGER,
Secretary of War.

Russell S. Alger is well known as the leader of the republican party in Michigan. His name was prominently mentioned as a candidate for the Vice President. He was born at Lafayette, O., in 1836. He was left an orphan at an early age, but by hard work succeeded in obtaining an education. In 1849 he was admitted to the bar. In 1859 he removed to Michigan and became a lumberman. He went to the front in the service of the Union when the late war broke out; became a colonel and was breveted brigadier general. His enterprise and business sagacity have placed him among the foremost of Michigan's capitalists.

LYMAN J. GAGE

will be Secretary of the Treasury in President McKinley's cabinet. Mr. Gage was born in Madison county, N. Y., in 1836. For nearly 45 years he has been a resident of Chicago. As a banker and financier his reputation is world-wide. At present he is president of the First National Bank, Chicago. He has held many responsible positions, and in all has maintained a character for integrity, benevolence and financial ability second to none in the country. He was one of the foremost among the promoters of the World's Fair, and was honored with the nomination of the presidency of the local board of directors. Mr. Gage is a sound money democrat.

JUDGE JOSEPH MCKENNA.

Judge Joseph McKenna, of California, who is slated for the Secretary of the Interior in McKinley's cabinet, is well-known on the Pacific coast and popular for his fair decisions. He was born in Philadelphia, and in 1855, as a mere child was removed to California. He was educated in the common schools of San Francisco and in St. Augustine College, Benicia, California, and at the age of 22 was admitted to the bar. He was elected district attorney of Solano County and served four years. In 1875 he was elected to the State Legislature, and here he made a name for himself as an orator. Judge McKenna has served four terms in the National Congress. He is a Statesman of excellent ability, a keen lawyer and a profound jurist.

John Sherman

Secretary of State.

This is one of the most distinguished men in the United States. Secretary Sherman's policy will be progressive and all American.

JAMES A. GARY.

James A. Gary, selected for Postmaster-General in the cabinet of the McKinley administration, is a distinguished citizen of Maryland, about 63 years of age. He received his education at Rockhill Institute, Ellicott County, Md., and Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. In 1861 he became a partner in the firm of James S. Gary & Sons, to which firm he devoted his youthful powers and cultivated mind. He was an ardent Unionist during the war and has been a republican ever since. In 1879 he was nominated for Governor, but the State being strongly democratic he failed of election. Mr. Gary has been a delegate to every national convention of the party since 1872 and from 1880 to 1896 has represented Maryland upon the national committee. In 1896 Mr. Gary was married to Miss Lavinia W. Corrie, daughter of James Corrie, and is the father of one son and seven daughters.

JAMES WILSON.

Prof. James Wilson of Ames, Ia., will succeed J. Sterling Morton as Secretary of Agriculture. Prof. Wilson is a Scotchman by birth. He located in Tama county, Ia., in 1855, when he was 20 years old. He has been closely identified with farming operations ever since. Tama county sent him to the 12th, 13th and 14th Iowa General Assemblies. He was elected speaker of the house in 1872, and before his term was completed was elected to the 43d Congress. He was re-elected to the 44th, after which he declined further congressional honors, and returned to his farm. In 1882 he was again elected to Congress. In 1891 he was made professor of agriculture in the Iowa Agricultural College at Ames, and has since that time devoted his energies to this institution.

CORNELIUS N. BLISS,
Secretary of the Interior.

Cornelius N. Bliss was born in Fall River, Mass., about sixty years ago. At the age of 20 he entered his father's commission house in New Orleans, and in 1848, went to Boston, where he entered the employ of James M. Beebe & Co. In a short time he became a member of that firm. In 1866 he went into partnership with John and Eben Wright & Co. This firm opened a branch store in New York city, which was placed under the management of Mr. Bliss, and soon it became the big end of the business. Today it is Bliss, Fabyan & Co., and is recognized as one of the leading dry goods firms.

JAMES D. LONG.

John D. Long, ex-Governor of Massachusetts, the probable Postmaster-General of the McKinley administration, is a most interesting character. He has been a successful politician, Statesman, and at the same time has found the genius and time to be a successful poet, author, singer and a Whiskey a Specialty. Mr. Long is a New Englander of wayflower pilgrim stock. He was educated in the common schools of Buckfield, where he was born, in an academy and last at Harvard. He became a legislator in 1870, made speaker in his second term, re-elected to that office, became Governor in 1879, elected and went to the 17th, 18th and 19th Congresses. He was twice elected to the Senate and since his retirement he has been one of the leaders at the bar.

THEY SAY.

Let all District Republicans unite.

THE BEE takes the lead in Afro-American journalism.

The only office a majority of Afro-Americans want is the Recorder'ship.

Why not apply for an office in the State?

Col. Hill thinks that no office in the District belongs to the people.

He is here, and intends to make the wool fly.

He is looking out for Mississippi, and don't you forget it.

Ex-President Cleveland did not appreciate men who could be used.

Those who served him received the black eye.

He showed his appreciation for those men before he retired.

A change in the Recorder's office is now demanded.

The people want that change to come soon.

Bishop Arnett's son wants to be Register of the Treasury.

Some people will go where angels dare not tread.

This is from Bishop Arnett's Bible.

You should read the Bishop's Bible, it has interesting reading to office-seekers.

The entire Ohio contingent is here looking for an office.

They expect to run the administration.

There are others who want to do likewise.

Mississippi is on the beach, and pebbles are looking bright.

Mr. John F. Cook is nursing Col. Hill.

He nursed others until he sucked all the milk from the coconut.

What a world this is for people who want pap.

The more a man has the more he wants.

Please give others a show who have had no chance.

Those who have been paid for services rendered need not expect anything at present.

It is hoped that the boys who are deserving will be given a chance.

A few people will be called and a few chosen.

In office-seeking there is time and labor spent.

Office-seekers who want cheap board had better apply at once.

THE BEE will tell you what will happen.

Don't fail to read it weekly.

It is not the man who makes the most noise that is at all times heard.

There will be a new deal this time.

The Civil Service is a fake.

It ought to be abolished at once.

Republicans have been turned out and Democrats put in.

Riot Democrats don't want to be.

Have shown that there are more than one.

Who is appointed Recorder?

What will the people do?

Refer no more propositions.

Keep a small office of your own.

Will be recognized.

100 original pictures now on hand.

Original photographs of the most important events of the war.

Will be shown to the public.

PARTY VS. PARTY.

The factional fight that has been going on between the two democratic factions in this city is nothing more than the disgraceful scenes that are often prevalent among certain republican factions in this city. The democratic factions have fully demonstrated their inability for home rule by their attack on Mr. Harry E. Davis. Whenever the question of home rule is considered, some excuse is always made by the opposers to home rule by saying that the negroes will rule in the District of Columbia or that they were responsible for the existing condition of affairs in the District of Columbia. If the colored man voted for the appropriation of money he never received any of it. The white man always had the disbursement of the funds, but the colored man was held responsible. How much benefit have District democrats received by their opposition to Mr. Davis? Has not a man a right to advocate any principle he feels disposed? It is not believed that Mr. Davis was opposed on account of anything personal against him as much as it was to get even with Mr. Cleveland.

Mr. Cleveland has been a failure, as a President, and his name will go down to posterity as a man being possessed with monumental stubbornness and very little reason. It is regretted that Mr. Birney should have been sacrificed after serving the President so well. It only goes to show that men should follow their real convictions, notwithstanding the wishes of their superior officers. Cardinal Wolsey was taught a lesson that all generations should not forget.

White men are like black men, except the former will unite against the latter and the latter will combine against one another for the benefit of a white man.

MR. DAVIS DEFEATED.

The Senate, in executive session Monday, refused to confirm the nomination of Mr. Henry E. Davis to be United States District Attorney, to succeed Mr. A. A. Birney. Notwithstanding the defeat of Mr. Davis, the Court, in General Term, made a temporary appointment, in the person of Mr. Davis, until his successor is nominated and confirmed. It is now a settled fact that Mr. Davis will not be the nominee of the President-elect, because a united effort will be made in the interest of Mr. C. Maurice Smith, one of the highest and, indeed, the most prominent, criminal lawyers before the District bar. Mr. Smith is a man of dignity and influence in this city, and President McKinley could not select a better man to be United States District Attorney. While it is true that Mr. Davis is a gentleman and a lawyer possessing the highest legal attainments, the district republicans are in favor of having a republican appointed to the United States District Attorneyship.

A WORTHY REPUBLICAN.

President McKinley will have his hands full in selecting proper material to represent the republican party in the District of Columbia. If he will only read The Bee weekly he will see from time to time the character of men who should be represented in this government. We would suggest the name of C. Maurice Smith, Esq., the most representative republican member of the District bar. Mr. Smith is an honest and a pure man. Such men we seldom find. We need men like Mr. Smith on the bench, as well as in the District Attorney's office. President McKinley will have no trouble in selecting worthy men.

COMMISSIONER ROSS.

The nomination of Mr. Sands having been settled beyond all doubt, it is more than likely that President-elect McKinley will reappoint Mr. Ross, as no better Democrat can be selected. One Democrat, by custom, is always appointed, and as Mr. Ross is so well and favorably known among all classes of people in this community, it is hoped that President McKinley will allow him to be his own successor. No man has taken so much interest in our people as Mr. Ross, and we know that his retention in the office of Commissioner would meet the entire approval of the citizens.

SOCIETY THIS WEEK.

The social circle this week has been one of merriment and enjoyment. Never before in the history of the social circle has there been so much anxiety to make everything agreeable and pleasant to the many thousand people who visited the city to witness the inauguration of Major McKinley. The hospitality of the Washington people has never before been so expressive as it has the past week.

Among some of the most notable events that have taken place were, the strangers welcome by the citizens of Washington under the auspices of Messrs. Daniel Murray, Dr. Francis, Dr. Shadd, Robert H. Terrell and others; the reception by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Douglass; still another by Miss Williams and other well-known society people.

"THIS WORLD WAS MADE FOR CAESAR."

"This world was made for Caesar," and there is no doubt of it. If Afro-Americans hope to be an integral part of it they must commence now and claim by acts and deeds that they are entitled to some of the productions which they assist to produce. We are told that we can have some of the productions, but such as they, the Caucasians will give. We place parties in office and are compelled to wait for the loaves and fish to be dished out. We are appealed to for our suffrages and are told that we must take what is given to us. We may select and choose what we want, but those who control governments make the Afro-American know that he is a small potato in the pile.

At this time, in this city, what is the outlook for those who are some of the constituents of the party that is now in power? If they were permitted every office would be taken and the colored man left to paddle his own canoe.

"This world is made for Caesar."

WILL HAVE IT.

[From the Chicago Leader.]
Washingtonians are clamoring for a District man for Recorder of Deeds; meanwhile, 3,000 aspirants, who live elsewhere, are working night and day to prevent them from having what the residents of Washington have long sought.

Yes, we are clamoring, and propose to clamor until District men are appointed to District offices.

Why do you want the Recorder-ship? Why not apply for an office in your own State?

In union there is strength.

Col. M. M. Parker is a candidate for United States Marshal.

The Colonel would make a dignified officer.

The Bee takes the lead and all others follow.

Don't fail to send in your names at once.

The earth wants the Recorder's office with a fence around it.

Home rule for the District will be followed.

C. Maurice Smith is the man to be nominated District Attorney.

He is an honorable gentleman and a high-toned lawyer.

Hon. John W. Ross is our favorite Commissioner.

He will be renominated by President-elect McKinley.

EX-SENATOR BRUCE.

Hon. B. K. Bruce stands in the front rank of public men and is by odds the leading Afro-American in the United States. He was for six years United States Senator from Mississippi, during which time he frequently acted Vice-President by presiding over the deliberations of the Senate. He is the only Afro-American to whom this honor has ever been given. He served four years as Register of the Treasury, under appointment from President James A. Garfield, during which time he signed and issued the greenbacks, the National Bank notes and all the securities of the Government. President Harrison, appreciating his ability and service, appointed him Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia. Here, as elsewhere, he won the plaudits of the people by his wise, judicious and able administration. Wherever he has been placed he has not only reflected credit upon his race, but vindicated, in the highest degree, the wisdom of his selection. He is an extensive cotton planter, a first-class business man, and deeply interested in the progress of his people. His advice and counsel is eagerly sought by the experienced as well as the inexperienced of his race; his knowledge of men and measures, together with his clear judgment, render his services in this line invaluable. He is a profound thinker, a graceful writer and an eloquent, forceful speaker. For a quarter of a century he has been a brilliant campaigner, and his devotion to the interests of the Republican party has been unwavering and untiring. He was supported for a Cabinet position by nine-tenths of the colored newspapers of this country, thus indicating the high esteem in which he is held by the masses. It is rumored that he is to be called to high official position shortly.

We recommend the brilliant achievements of this great man to the careful study of the colored youth of the land.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.

LOCAL POLITICIANS WHO WANT SOMETHING ELSE.

The Afro-American politicians are busily engaged circulating petitions for offices. Some of them have selected some of the most choice places, perhaps only to be disappointed. They will, no doubt, be trimmed down to their proper sizes before they realize their hopes. Some of them have assured their indorsement that Chairman Mark Hanna has indorsed them. You will hardly find an applicant who doesn't declare that Chairman Hanna has indorsed him.

The Recorder's Office (local applicants)—L. C. Bailey, M. M. Holland, W. P. Thomas and 3,000 others.
District Commissioner—Col. Truett, Chapin Brown, J. M. Langston, Dr. Farden, L. M. Sanders and 50 others.

THE INAUGURATION.

MCKINLEY AND HOBART INSTALLED IN OFFICE—THE YEAR OF PROSPERITY HAS ARRIVED.

It was a great day on Thursday. The American people were out for a holiday and to do honor to their chosen representatives.

Major McKinley never looked better. His dignified bearing and erect figure made him look like the generals of old, who very often returned in triumph after having won a victorious battle. This was the appearance of the President on Thursday.

The procession was large and imposing. The civic and military display were grand. All along the line were cheers and shouts for the men—the American people had chosen as their representatives.

AT THE CAPITOL.

The President and Vice-President took the oath of office.

The inaugural address was very conservative. It is evident that the new President will carry out, as far as possible, what he uttered on the Capitol steps. He has made efforts to please those who have opposed him and extends the olive branch of peace to the warring factions. He will make a great President and ruler over a grateful people. The

of the parade and his staff were the centres of attraction.

The affair was well conducted and well arranged. Everything went off nicely. Mr. B. H. Warner and Col. C. Clay must come in for a share of the good things. They managed their part of the programme well. Col. Clay is an old campaigner, and there is no doubt that he surpassed all expectations.

MCKINLEY AND HOBART.

A LARGE DEMONSTRATION ON THEIR ARRIVAL.

President McKinley and Vice-President Hobart arrived in the city on Tuesday, the former in the morning and the latter in the afternoon.

President McKinley was driven to the Ebbitt House, where he had commodious apartments already engaged. The Vice-President went direct to the Arlington Hotel.

In the evening President Cleveland and wife tendered a dinner to the new President and wife. Mrs. McKinley was unable to be present. Mrs. Cleveland, who has always been a favorite in this city, and especially the people of this country, sent a beautiful basket of flowers from the Executive Mansion to Mrs. McKinley.

The demonstration at the depot was very large when Major McKinley arrived. Around the Ebbitt House thousands of people had assembled to take a glimpse at the new Presidential party.

The reception committee that met Vice-President Hobart consisted of Mr. S. W. Woodward, Mr. H. E. Davis, Hon. W. W. Dudley and Gen. Butterworth.

Both the President and Vice-President had a number of callers. Major McKinley has to give instructions that he could not be seen, only by such persons with whom he had important business.

The Sparta Cafe is doing a rushing business this week. The boys have been pouring in. There are two bars now, one in front and one in the rear, presided over by Mr. Semper Tyler.

Dr. G. B. Lovejoy was appointed teacher in School No. 4, in the Fourth District, by the School Commissioners Tuesday.

Alexander A. Cornish, a member of Asbury Church, died Feb. 25. He was a Grand Army man, a good citizen, and well thought of by everybody. His funeral took place Saturday at 3 p. m., Rev. B. T. Perkins officiating. Sheridan Post, No. 12, turned out with their drum corps. Prof. L. Carter's band was also in procession. A very large crowd of people turned out, showing the high esteem in which he was held. He leaves a wife and 1 several children to mourn their loss. One of his sons, who is aboard a naval ship, reached home just in time for the funeral.

Sheridan's Post, No. 12, and their drum corps and the McKinley and Hobart Club of this city attended the inauguration Thursday and had a place in line with the Marylanders. Col. D. W. Young, commander, and Henry Hebron, president of the club, were in charge.

Revs. I. G. Penn, G. D. Pinkney and Alexander Dennis will be with the pastor of Asbury Sunday, and assist him in closing up the conference year. A special programme has been prepared for the league at 4 p. m., consisting of instrumental and vocal music.

GEORGE WELLINGTON BRYANT, M. D.
Superintendent of Street Cleaning, Baltimore, Md.

The history of this individual reads like a romance, but space will not permit us to do so. Born of a slave mother in Kentucky in 1849, he is of Scotch Irish extraction on his father's side, while his mother is of royal line—the daughter of Lee Boo, the pirate king of the island of Borneo, who was assassinated in August, 1834, at Brunai, the then capital of the island. This strange admixture of blood makes the doctor one of the most unique figures in the history of the century, and gives to him a most startling contrariety of character. He is bold, brave, imperious, daring, and yet as good-hearted as a woman. He entered the army as a drummer boy in February, 1863, and was a member of Company K, 54th Massachusetts Regiment, and at the famous charge of Fort Wagner, was wounded four times while endeavoring to hold in his arms the gallant Col. Robert G. Shaw, who was killed at that charge. He afterwards enlisted as a soldier in the 27th Ohio (Colored) Regiment, raised at Camp Delaware, O., Col. Blackman commanding, and was promoted a duty sergeant in Company K, Capt. J. J. Wakefield commanding, and was discharged October 25th at the Peabody House by command of Major-General Parks, 9th Army Corps, on account of wounds received in line of duty before Petersburg Va. But he was not content with staying at home, and again enlisted at Xenia, O., in the 17th U. S. C. I., serving one year at Chattanooga, Tenn. He was sent to Rome to study for the priesthood in order to go to Africa, but in a few months tired of it and went to Heidelberg to the famous college studying medicine, and from there to King's College, London, Eng., where he graduated in full honors, Class '70. Returning to this country, he became prominent in church and politics, and has filled many offices of honor and trust, among which is member of legislature, mailing clerk in Mobile P. O., member State Board of Health, New Orleans La., brigadier-general in State militia, deputy collector internal revenue, St. Louis, Mo., and now superintendent of street cleaning in Baltimore, Md., and the first colored man ever to hold office in the municipal government in Maryland. He canvassed the counties of Maryland two months before Hon. Lloyd Lowndes was nominated for Governor, explaining the Governor's vote against the Sumner Civil Service Rights bill when he was a member of Congress. He secured the nomination of Lloyd Lowndes in the Cambridge convention, which set at rest the opposition. He canvassed every county in Maryland. He was the confidential man of Hon. M. A. Hanna, chairman of the national republican convention, and threw the tide to McKinley when it was in doubt. He was in the employ of the national republican bureau of speakers, and was highly commended for his work. He was an ardent supporter of Hon. J. A. Gary for a cabinet position. He is the true and confidential friend of Hon. G. L. Wellington, U. S. Senator from Maryland, and has the confidence and respect of the entire Maryland administration, State and congressional. He is a powerful and eloquent orator, and thousands go wild over his speeches. He will be heard from in the future.

ISAAC A. JUDAH,
President of the James L. Goodall Republican Association.

THE JAMES L. GOODALL ASSOCIATION.

The dissatisfaction arising from the slow and arbitrary methods of the officers of the famous M. S. Quay Club, and the desire for the greater political activity, one hundred of the young members, headed by Messrs. Andrew James, George T. Sherper, Isaac A. Judah, William Goodall, James Freeman, and James L. Goodall, bolted from that organization and formed what is now the James L. Goodall Republican Association. In the month of January, 1893. Headquarters were secured at 1330 Lombard street, which were handsomely furnished with everything necessary for the comfort of its members.

Since its organization it has taken an active part in the local and State campaign, and has become one of the best known and influential clubs in the State. Among the individual members are many of the leading business men and politicians of color in the city, who are ready at all times to carry forward any movement that tends towards securing the industrial and political rights of their people. A large number of the members were formerly Washington boys, who accept the opportunity to visit friends and relatives.

The present quarters at 418 South 17th street, were secured in 1895, their old home becoming too small to accommodate the rapidly increasing membership, where is maintained one of the largest and best appointed club houses in the city by colored men. It is also the only club taking its name from a colored leader actively engaged in the work of his people.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

C. M. S. the Republicans unite on District offices. The 3,000 applicants for the Recorder's office apply for some other place.

Col. John W. Ross renominated by President-elect McKinley.

*Col. M. M. Parker [United States Marshal.]

A good man to succeed Justice Cox.

Capt. Meredith to succeed Claude M. Johnson.

Public Printer Benedict remembered by his friends.

J. H. Butcher promoted for faithful services.

Ohio Republicans united for their own good.

*Robert H. Terrell appointed to a good position.

An immediate vacancy in the office of Recorder of Deeds.

Mr. Cleveland remain away fishing until 1900.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

If the colored Democrats will take a dose of their own medicine.

How will they receive a ticket-of-leave man.

If it would not be right for them to resign the places from which they had colored republicans deposed.

How many applicants have we for the Haytian and Liberian missions.

What will be the result of the Ohio fight between Afro-Americans.

How many Afro-Americans have been promised the Recorder'ship.

IT IS RUMORED

C. M. Smith will succeed Mr. Davis.

A good Republican will succeed Judge Cox.

H. C. C. Astwood is a candidate for office under McKinley.

Tom Carter will be the next messenger at the Executive Mansion.

Col. Fred. Brackett will hold a big place.

Col. Brackett will look out for good Republicans.

Dr. Williams of the Freedmen's Hospital will spring a surprise.

Something will drop South soon.

All politicians don't know it all.

Big speeches and bluster do not always win.

Senator Hanna will be the power behind the scene.

BIG POLITICIANS IN TOWN.

Dr. Ernest Lyons, one of the leading New York politicians, and, no doubt, one of the wisest Afro-American representatives in the State, is in the city, the guest of Rev. Dr. Thomas, pastor of Asbury Church, 1916 11th st., n.w.

Prof. A. B. Cooley of New Jersey, the leading Afro-American politician in that State, is in the city. Prof. Cooley is here strictly on business.

Hon. Stanley Ruffin of Boston, Mass., is stopping at 1415 Corcoran st., n.w. He is a young politician.

Mr. Chas. W. Anderson, New York's favorite Afro-American politician, and, no doubt, the shrewdest in the State, is the guest of ex-Governor P. B. S. Pinchback. Mr. Anderson is a favorite among the young politicians in this country.

Lawyer J. Madison Vance of New Orleans, La., is in the city, stopping at 1416 I street, n.w. Mr. Vance is one of the most gifted orators and politicians in this country. Mr. Vance is the gentleman who seconded the nomination of Major McKinley.

Hon. P. F. Hewing, chairman of the Republican State Committee of New Orleans, La., is in the city, stopping at the Ebbitt House. Mr. Hewing is a man of means and the leading republican in the State of Louisiana.

Mr. S. P. Hurst, chairman of the State Committee of New Orleans, La., is in the city.

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

It is, indeed, amusing to see the army of office-seekers. They all want office, and that badly. Nothing will satisfy the hungry office-seekers but an office. President McKinley will have his hands full.

Every candidate for the office of Recorder of Deeds intends to have his picture taken. This is a novel way of introducing themselves to the President. If the President decides to appoint an outside man it is quite likely that Baltimore will stand a good chance.

Mr. L. W. Palies, like his friend, H. C. O. Astwood, declared for McKinley after he was elected. Perhaps some of the colored democrats will be given a chance to explain.

There is to be a clean sweep in the Recorder's office. Hen Johnson is a dandy, and will, no doubt, work his rabbit foot. Henry only wants two hours with any Recorder to convince him that he is a necessary quantity. He knows how to do, and he can do it well. Iago in Othello is in the shade with Henry. He can make any man believe that the moon is made of green cheese.

My genial friend, Bob Terrell, read a paper before the Bethel Literary last Tuesday night. There was a distinguished crowd present.

Col. James Hill of Mississippi

arrived in town last Saturday. He was surrounded by place hunters on Sunday, but the suave colonel did not hesitate in expressing his thoughts as to the Mississippi situation. I am an admirer of Col. Hill, and hope that he will be magnanimous enough, and lay down whatever differences that may exist.

My dear friend, Mr. Lynch, is receiving a great number of letters from all over the country from distinguished republicans, extending to him the right hand of fellowship.

Ex-Senator Allain wants to be Third Auditor. He is making a still hunt. The senator is a great race man and a hard worker. He is entitled to consideration, because he is one man who never knows what it is to be defeated.

One peculiar characteristic about Afro-Americans is that they will either apply for a place that is held by one of their number or one that was formerly held by them.

Some people have gall. The Rev. H. C. C. Astwood is a candidate for a foreign mission. He will remain on the fence, no doubt, long enough to be convinced that he is not wanted in the republican party just at this time.

The several Inaugural Committees have Afro-Americans appointed on them. From all indications the white members hold the positions while the colored brethren are given badges and work to do. It is about time for the colored brother to look for something more substantial and less honor.

The inaugural headquarters have been a scene of much activity. Col. Fred. Brackett has been the central figure. The genial colonel has always a good word to speak for those who are on the square. He is one man who never loses his head no matter how busy others may be.

Col. M. M. Parker, the District National Committeeman is a candidate for United States Marshal. Col. Parker would, no doubt, make a dignified marshal and there is no doubt but that he is just the man to do proper honors at the White House. Col. Parker will no doubt get there.

CYRUS.

THE VIRGINIANS HOSPITALITY.

The Virginia Republican League, of this city, will on next Monday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall, tender an inaugural banquet to their many friends and acquaintances, who have been invited to be present. Mr. F. D. Lee, the president has everything nicely arranged, and no doubt the affair will be one of the best given.

The Inauguration Committee is composed of Mr. F. D. Lee, Dr. C. B. Purvis, Mr. D. H. Murray, Hon. J. M. Langston, Mr. O. D. Morris, Dr. W. Conner, Messrs. W. H. Tucker and A. B. Casey.

There will be covers laid for 150 guests and the menu will consist of 9 covers.

It will be the finest political gathering of representative republicans that have ever assembled.

Man has only himself to blame if his life appears to him at any time void of interest and pleasures.
The first great mistake that many of
us fall into is that we do not use integrity and truth and good sense in judging of what we are fit for.

It is not wise to aspire after things that are pleasing to our ambition. We should seek things that are adopted
to our capacity.

Nellie—Woman spreads around
man the flowers of existence. Let your life be a pure one.

Mother—Children are more easily
led to good by examples of loving,
kindness, and tales of well doing in others, than threatened into obedience
by records of sin, crime, and punishment.

Inquirer—Columbus was the son of
a weaver and a weaver himself.
Shakespeare was the son of a wood-stapler. Napoleon was of an obscure family of Corsica. Astor once sold apples in the streets of New York. Daniel Webster, while young worked on a farm.

The person who thinks he can take
a short cut to fortune will be mistaken,
if he tries it.

E. V.—Save a portion of your earnings. A neglect of economy eventually leads to every misery of poverty and degradation and not unfrequently to
error or crime.

Laura—Agreeable manners contribute wonderfully to a person's success. Beauty is only a gift of nature,
but manners are acquired by cultivation and practice, and the neglect of
them is seldom pardoned by the world.

Girls—A dandy is a dry goods sign
and not a gentleman, for he depends on his style of dress for his passport in the best circles of society. Good clothes are not good habits.

S. T.—Home environments have a great deal to do with the disposition of children. Parents cannot be too
careful of what they say and do before
their young ones.

Fashion—A tea gown of pale blue
trimmed with white lace and another
of silver gray satin trimmed with black pleated chiffon are named as among a dainty array of house dresses.

Answer—Mrs. McKinley's favorite
color is blue, and her favorite flower
the pink La France or Mermet rose.

Rachel—Let your actions be above suspicion. Suspicious people are usually the most guilty.

If we want to accomplish anything
we must work systematically, by so doing we will find ourselves fascinated
with our work.

No one should be over-sensitive, as
it oftentimes make a person unhappy unnecessarily.

Kate—A man who falls in love with every new and pretty face he sees is no better than the giddy girl who ignores all her old associates the moment she finds a new acquaintance.

M.—When a lady makes an engagement with a gentleman and finds that
she cannot keep it, she should, of
course, notify the gentleman before his arrival. No honest girl will be guilty of entertaining a gentleman she claims to dislike. Of course, the pretensions girl will do anything.

The meaner you treat some men the better they seem to like you. Beware
of the man who is always on the alert
for ladies. He seeks them for no
good.

Recipe—Four quarts of water, two
pounds of sugar, two quarts of cranberries. Boil water and sugar, then skim, stew the cranberries in a very little water; put through a sieve and add to the syrup. When cold, freeze
it, and you will have a delicious cranberry ice.

To restore the hair and remove dandruff, get a bottle of Hairoline. Advertisement in another column.

Lena—Use Oriental Complexion
Cream. It removes blackheads, pimples and cures all skin eruptions.
Price, 25 and 50 cents. 205 O Street,
N.W. Agency at this office.

When selfishness becomes established in any family love hopes down,
and you might as well prepare yourself
for the disagreeable little sayings
which break up many a comfortable
home.

We should all cultivate patience and toleration; still it is not necessary to stand abuse for the sake of these good
qualities.

No one should say misleading or unkind things in anger, neither should
women or men be harsh to their best
friends and believe they can be as friendly as ever afterwards.

The man who speaks of a woman
has but little respect for his own mother. No honest man will listen to disagreeable things about the opposite
sex.

Nothing is more disgusting than to see a bevy of girls standing on the street corner conversing about men.
Indeed, girls who respect themselves
would not be caught in such company.

Essie—It is the person who is not used to well doing who is ever ready to gabble about her belongings. Now that things are so cheap, it is a very small matter for all girls to look presentable, and at the same time save a portion of her wages, even though they
be very small.

Nothing is more ridiculous than to
see some people trying to explain a thing of which he is ignorant. An honest person soon detects sham.

ON THE SIDE

Man has only himself to blame if his
life appears to him at any time void of
interest and pleasures.

The first great mistake that many of
us fall into is that we do not use integrity and truth and good sense in judging of what we are fit for.

It is not wise to aspire after things
that are pleasing to our ambition. We
should seek things that are adopted
to our capacity.

Nellie—Woman spreads around
man the flowers of existence. Let
your life be a pure one.

Mother—Children are more easily
led to good by examples of loving, kindness, and tales of well doings. In others, than threatened into obedience
by records of sin, crime, and punishment.

Inquirer—Columbus was the son of
a weaver and a weaver himself.
Shakespeare was the son of a wood-
stapler. Napoleon was of an obscure
family of Corsica. Astor once sold apples in the streets of New York. Daniel Webster, while young worked on a
farm.

The person who thinks he can take
a short cut to fortune will be mistaken,
if he tries it.

E. V.—Save a portion of your earnings. A neglect of economy eventually
leads to every misery of poverty and
degradation and not unfrequently to
error or crime.

Laura—Agreeable manners contribute wonderfully to a person's success. Beauty is only a gift of nature,
but manners are acquired by cultivation and practice, and the neglect of
them is seldom pardoned by the world.

Girls—A dandy is a dry goods sign
and not a gentleman, for he depends
on his style of dress for his passport in the best circles of society. Good clothes are not good habits.

S. T.—Home environments have a great deal to do with the disposition
of children. Parents cannot be too
careful of what they say and do before
their young ones.

Fashion—A tea gown of pale blue
trimmed with white lace and another
of silver gray satin trimmed with black plaited chiffon are named as among a dainty array of house dresses.

Answer—Mrs. McKinley's favorite
color is blue, and her favorite flower
the pink La France or Mermose rose.

Rachel—Let your actions be above
suspicion. Suspicious people are usually the most guilty.

If we want to accomplish anything
we must work systematically; by so
doing we will find ourselves fascinated
with our work.

No one should be over-sensitive, as
it oftentimes make a person unhappy unnecessarily.

Kate—A man who falls in love with every new and pretty face he sees is no better than the giddy girl who ignores
all her old associates the moment she
finds a new acquaintance.

M.—When a lady makes an engagement with a gentleman and finds that
she cannot keep it, she should, of
course, notify the gentleman before
his arrival. No honest girl will be guilty of entertaining a gentleman she
claims to dislike. Of course the pretentious girl will do anything.

The meanness you treat some men the better they seem to like you. Beware
of the man who is always on the alert
for ladies. He seeks them for no
good.

Recipe—Four quarts of water, two
pounds of sugar, two quarts of cranberries. Boil water and sugar, then
skim, stew the cranberries in a very little water; put through a sieve and
add to the syrup. When cold, freeze
it, and you will have a delicious cranberry ice.

To restore the hair and remove dandruff, get a bottle of Hairline. Advertisement in another column.

Lena—Use Oriental Complexion
Cream. It removes blackheads, impurities and cures all skin eruptions.
Price, 25 and 50 cents. 205 O Street,
n. w. Agency at this office.

When selfishness becomes established in any family love hops down,
and you might as well prepare yourself
for the disagreeable little sayings
which break up many a comfortable
home.

We should all cultivate patience and
toleration; still it is not necessary to
stand abuse for the sake of these good
qualities.

No one should say misleading or un-
kind things in anger, neither should
women or men be harsh to their best
friends and believe they can be as
friendly as ever afterwards.

The man who speaks of a woman
has but little respect for his own
mother. No honest man will listen to disagreeable things about the opposite
sex.

Nothing is more disgusting than to
see a bevy of girls standing on the
street corner conversing about men.
Indeed, girls who respect themselves
would not be caught in such company.

Esie—It is the person who is not
used to well doing who is ever ready
to gabble about her belongings. Now
that things are so cheap, it is a very
small matter for all girls to look pre-
sentable, and at the same time save a
portion of her wages, even though they
be very small.

Nothing is more ridiculous than to
see some people trying to explain a thing of which he is ignorant. An honest person soon detects sham.

By Scottish Rings formed for the purpose of getting revenge. The action taken by the Grand Lodge was contrary to the 13th Landmark and the same was followed by the Grand Chapter and Commandery. In conclusion let the Grand Commandery remember the action taken in the cases of the Commanderies in Florida and Georgia. It is a poor rule that won't work both ways. Also let the Grand Lodge remember the course it pursued in regards to the Compact Grand Lodge. In conclusion, I would suggest that these Grand Bodies issue another edict to its members, directing them to learn about their own origin before they go around spouting about bogus bodies. Now in conclusion, follow the advice given on the jump, cease firing and the war will stop. All that the 17th street Faction is now doing, is making men in the course of a year at the rate we are making, we will outnumber the opposite faction 2 to 1; next year 3 to 1 and so on. This work will continue and don't forget it, and I would suggest that the older members of the Craft remember the action taken in the case of one of its Past Grand Masters who was impeached. The same should be done in this case. Mr. Mackey gives you the right. It is with you whether you carry it out.

M. Shrine is the most prominent and leading colored Masons in Ohio.

The General Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the Cryptic Rite of Freemasonry of the United States and Canada has now twenty-two Councils in various parts of the country much of the advancement and success of this laudible masonic work is due to the energy and activity of companions. ## THE AMERICAN QUEEN.

The March issue of The American Queen marks a striking advance over the foregoing number. An unusually fine quality of paper in addition to the superb half-tone picture on the cover gives the magazine an appearance of great distinction and beauty. Her Imperial British Majesty, Victoria, surrounded by the entire sovereign queen of Europe, makes a brilliant group presented in honor of the great jubilee English subjects the world over are preparing to celebrate.

A charming love story, "A Renaissance Model," is sure to attract the attention of readers, who will also find pleasure in the various departments that offer unusual variety and interest this month.

The fashions are fresh, varied and some of them rarely beautiful and suggestive, courting comparison with the best work in this line, on either side of the water. "The Dressmaker" is sure of a welcome from observant women who are keen to note its value, and housekeepers are congratulated upon "The Queen's Cooking School" a new feature for March; "The Mirror of Venus," "Recreation," "Needlework," "Money Making for Women," all maintain their high standard of excellence.

EXCITING TIMES IN THE BAPTIST COUNSEL.—REV. S. G. LAMPKINS ASSAILS REV. W. H. BROOKS. THE LATTER DEFENDS HIMSELF.

The Conference Committee that was called last week at Rev. Shelton Miller's Church, near Brightwood, to investigate the charges against Rev. S. G. Lampkins, held a most exciting meeting. Rev. Walter H. Brooks, the distinguished Baptist divine led the attack on Rev. Lampkins.

The accusers of the pastor were present and Moderator Rev. W. Bishop Johnson had to call Rev. Brooks to order two or three times, on account of his personal attack on Rev. Lampkins.

Rev. Lampkins in his own defense made several ugly charges against Rev. Brooks, who didn't in the least feel disturbed, but defied Rev. Lampkins to produce his proof.

Moderator Johnson presided with all the dignity of a well trained parliamentarian. After having listened to the evidence against Rev. Lampkins, the counsel adjourned to meet some time this month.

It is the general opinion among a majority of the Council that Rev. Lampkins will be vindicated of any wrong doing. Very little confidence is placed in the testimony of the females who testified against him.

On the other hand it is said that the ladies are of the highest character.

Others seem to think that it is a conspiracy and that certain ministers who are opposed to Rev. Lampkins are responsible for the attack. The next meeting no doubt will be very interesting.

Rev. George W. Lee, the pastor of the Colored Baptist, said that he would not condemn a dog on the evidence against Rev. Lampkins.

Dr. Credit, the gentlemanly and polished orator of the Baptist Conference sustained Rev. Brooks in his attack on Rev. Lampkins.

THE PHILADELPHIA HOUSE.

The well-known and popular hotel manager, Mr. P. H. Meredith, of the Philadelphia House, has improved his place to such an extent that it presents a lively appearance. Every room in the house has been repapered and painted. He has improved the bar-room by placing new paper on the walls and where the lunch counter was, the rear room which is about 60 by 20 feet has been refitted, and is used as a dining-room. The genial Jesse K. Roy is busily engaged this week, and he meets the many friends who frequent the house with the same genial spirit that he used to in days gone by.

The Philadelphia House is one of the best known houses in this city.
